CSiRL GR86 Series Guide

THE LEAGUE

One league. One series. One points system.

CSiRL runs one weekly iRacing series out of a single Discord: Overtake Tuesdays, the GR86 Cup. Entry is Discord-first: join the server, grab the Racer role, and you are on the roster. To race you must do both - join the Discord (discord.gg/d52ma2HQVB) and join the league in iRacing (League ID 11685).

Overtake Tuesdays - GR86 Cup

The pure driver series. Everyone races the identical GR86 Cup car on the same fixed setup, just like the real-world Toyota GR Cup. No setup arms race, no tuner advantage - the championship is won on racecraft, consistency, and clean overtakes. Lobby 7:00 PM ET, qualifying 8:00 PM ET.

How to Join - both steps required

Step 1 - Discord (mandatory). Join the server at discord.gg/d52ma2HQVB and grab the Racer role. No Discord, no grid slot.
Step 2 - iRacing league. Join the league in iRacing - League ID 11685. Both steps are required to race.

Race-night format

SESSION	LENGTH	NOTES
Practice	60 min	Open practice, all drivers. Lobby opens 7:00 PM ET, qualifying 8:00 PM ET sharp
Qualifying	10 min	Open qualifying; sets the Heat 1 grid and the pole bonus
Heat 1	20 min	Grid set by qualifying
Break	5 min	Between heats
Heat 2	20 min	Full-field reverse grid from the Heat 1 finishing order

Arrive & Drive Points System

However many drivers show up is the maximum points available that night. Per heat, the winner scores N points (N = drivers entered that night), second scores N-1, and so on down to 1 point for the last classified driver. Ten drivers means the heat pays 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1; sixteen drivers pays 16 down to 1. Bonus points sit on top and are never capped by turnout.

BONUS	VALUE	HOW IT IS EARNED
Pole position	+2	Fastest qualifier
Fast Lap Bonus	+1 per heat	Fastest lap of the heat
Clean Race Bonus (CRB)	+2 per night	0 incidents (0x) across both heats that night
Heat sweep	+3	Win both heats on the night
Heat 2 Hard Charger	+2	Most positions gained in the reverse-grid heat

Championship: each driver drops their worst round. Tuesdays runs the base system pure - no extras, by design.

Arrive & Drive Points - GR86 Cup

6. GR86 Cup Season 6 - Arrive & Drive (Season 6 and all future series)

Source of truth: CSiRL Arrive & Drive Points System (Oct 4, 2026).

6.1 The core idea

> However many drivers show up is the max points available that night - excluding bonuses. Per heat, the winner gets N points (N = number of drivers entered that night), 2nd gets N-1, 3rd gets N-2, down to 1 point for the last classified driver. Bigger grids are worth more; every position pays.

EXAMPLE GRID	HEAT PAYOUT (1ST TO LAST)
10 drivers entered	10 - 9 - 8 - 7 - 6 - 5 - 4 - 3 - 2 - 1
16 drivers entered	16 - 15 - 14 - 13 - 12 - 11 - 10 - 9 - 8 - 7 - 6 - 5 - 4 - 3 - 2 - 1
20 drivers entered	20 down to 1

- Entered = drivers who start Heat 1. Admin publishes N before Heat 1.
- Both heats pay the same N scale. A driver who only contests one heat scores only that heat.
- Classified finish requires appearing in official results. DNFs classified by distance score by position; unclassified disconnects score 0.

6.2 GR86 bonuses (on top, never capped by turnout)

BONUS	VALUE	CONDITION
Pole position	+2	Fastest valid qualifying lap
Fast Lap Bonus	+1 per heat	Fastest lap of that heat
Clean Race Bonus (CRB)	+2 per night	0 incidents (0x) across both heats combined
Heat sweep	+3	Win both heats on the night
Heat 2 Hard Charger	+2	Most positions gained in Heat 2 (reverse-grid heat); ties broken by Heat 2 finish, then Heat 1 finish

Points - championship scoring

6.3 Championship scoring

- Drop round: Each driver's worst round (lowest nightly total, bonuses included) is dropped from the championship total. A missed round counts as 0 and is the natural drop.
- Nightly total (GR86) = Heat 1 points + Heat 2 points + all bonuses earned that night.
- Tiebreakers: (1) most heat wins, (2) most Heat 1 wins, (3) most poles, (4) best finale finish, (5) earliest first win.

The system in Section 6 is the whole system - fixed setups are the series identity.

One series, one system. Turnout sets the scale, bonuses reward clean and quick, and the drop round keeps mid-season joiners alive in the title fight.

On-track sporting code

7.1 The golden rule

Race hard, race clean, leave racing room. CSiRL is a community league: the driver you battle tonight is the teammate, rival, and recruiter you need next week. Avoidable contact that ruins another driver's race is always reviewable, even if iRacing only calls it a racing incident.

7.2 Defending & overtaking

- One defensive move per straight. No weaving, no reactionary blocking after the attacker commits.
- A defending driver must leave at least one car's width when a front bumper is alongside the rear axle (the "alongside" threshold).
- Dive-bombs from more than one car length back that require the lead driver to evade to avoid contact are the attacker's fault if contact occurs.
- Blue flags (where shown): lapped drivers hold a predictable line and lift/allow pass at the next safe straight. They do not have to dive off track, but must not defend against leaders.
- Track limits per iRacing. Repeated off-track passes must be conceded immediately or the place returned.

7.3 Starts, restarts & reverse grids

- No jump starts, no lagging to slingshot. Maintain pace-lap / formation discipline per lobby setting.
- Heat 2 reverse grid: know your grid slot before the session. If unsure, ask in Discord voice - do not grid-swap without admin approval.
- Cold tires, crowded mirrors: Lap 1 of Heat 2 is the highest-risk lap of the night. Extra patience is mandatory; Lap 1 avoidable contact draws upgraded penalties (Sec. 8).

7.4 Pit lane, resets & in-sim conduct

- Respect pit blend lines. No cutting pit entry/exit to gain time.
- Fast-repair / tow use per lobby settings announced that night. Rejoin safely - check mirrors/minimap, re-enter at low speed off the racing line.
- No intentional wrecking, brake-checking, pit-lane blocking, or using another car as a brake. Ever. This includes practice and post-race.
- Voice/text chat: no profanity directed at another driver, no hate speech, no spamming. Keep comms to race calls ("passing left," "pitting in") during green-flag racing.

7.5 Incident points (0x and CRB)

iRacing incident points (x) are the objective baseline. The Clean Race Bonus requires 0x across both heats combined for the night - a single off-track 1x in either heat forfeits CRB that night. CRB is a reward for clean racing, not a penalty tier; losing it does not imply fault.

> Self-reporting helps. Returning a position or owning a mistake before a protest is filed is mitigating and usually caps the outcome at a warning or minor (Sec. 8).

Penalties, protests & championships

8. Incidents, penalties & stewarding

Admin (or designated stewards) review protests and may act on observed incidents without a protest. Penalties are educational first, punitive for repeat or intentional conduct.

LEVEL	TYPICAL CONDUCT	PENALTY RANGE
Warning	Careless move, no position change, minor contact	Discord warning; noted for repeat tracking
Minor	Avoidable contact causing position loss; unsafe rejoin	Place swap / +5s equivalent points adjustment; loss of CRB if not already lost
Major	Avoidable contact causing DNF-level damage; Lap 1 pile-up fault; blocking causing crash	Heat DSQ or grid penalty next round; points dock at admin discretion
Severe	Intentional wrecking, retaliation, hate speech	Round DSQ, suspension, or removal from series/Discord

- Repeat offenders: Two minors in three rounds escalate to a major. Stewards track privately; drivers may request their own record.
- Self-reporting: Voluntarily returning a position or self-reporting fault before a protest is filed is mitigating and usually caps the penalty at a warning/minor.
- No in-race live penalties unless admin calls one in Discord voice for safety (e.g., park a damaged car). Most adjudication is post-race.

Protests, championships & conduct

9. Protests & appeals

1. File as a private ticket in #stewarding within 24 hours of the lobby closing. Include: round, heat, lap, turn, drivers involved, and a replay clip or iRacing replay timestamp.
2. One protest per incident. Do not argue the incident in public channels while it is under review.
3. Stewards aim to publish decisions within 48 hours. Decisions state fault, penalty (if any), and points adjustments.
4. Appeal: One appeal per decision, within 24 hours of publication, with new evidence only (different angle/replay). The appeal decision is final.
5. Frivolous or harassing protests can themselves draw a warning.

How stewarding runs. The stewards are Mike Fagone, Dave Sciarretta, Ivan Duarte and Kevin Annis. A ticket is visible only to the filing driver and the stewards; stewards may add another driver involved to give their side. Two stewards must agree to a ruling — the league admin breaks a tie, and a Severe penalty (Sec. 8) needs the admin plus one other steward. A steward involved in the incident takes no part in the decision. No video evidence, no case; incidents without clear fault are ruled a racing incident, no action. Stewards keep a private per-driver record for the Sec. 8 escalation rule (ask for your own by ticket). Decisions land in the ticket and the stewards' log; a one-line outcome is posted publicly only when a penalty changes points or positions.

10. Championships, ties & off-track conduct

- Titles: Drivers' Champion. Tuesdays crown a Drivers' Champion only - pure and simple.
- Eligibility for titles: Must contest at least 4 of 8 rounds (after drop round). Admin may waive for mid-season joiners who contest all remaining rounds.
- Off-track conduct: Discord rules apply in all league spaces. Recruiting spam, poaching drama, or leaking lobby passwords outside Discord breaches this code.
- Amendments: Admin may amend this code mid-season for safety or clarity with 24-hour Discord notice. Points-system changes never apply retroactively unless correcting a scoring error.
- Scoring errors: Report within 48 hours of published standings. Corrections after that window require admin approval.

Race the night, respect the season. Show up, race clean, and the championship takes care of itself - every finisher scores, and clean + quick both pay.

Driver ratings

11. Driver Categorisation

Every driver who races in CSiRL carries one league rating, earned from their actual results across every CSiRL series they enter — GT4 Madness, the GR86 Cup, and Grand Endurance all feed the same rating. A driver is only expected at rounds in series they have entered; series never entered never count against them.

11.1 The Rating Score

After every race night, each driver is scored 0–100:

- Performance — 60% — finishing position measured against the field: each start scores (drivers beaten ÷ (field size − 1)) × 100, averaged over the driver's starts.
- Safety — 30% — average incident points (x) per start. An average of 2.0x per start or cleaner scores 100; every extra 1x per start costs 9 points, to a floor of 0.
- Attendance — 10% — starts ÷ rounds held since the driver's own first start in a series they have entered. Rounds before a driver's debut never count against them.

Scores are kept to one decimal place, and class thresholds apply to the exact score.

11.2 The ratings

CLASS	RATING SCORE
Platinum	90 and above
Gold	75 – 89.9
Silver	55 – 74.9
Bronze	Below 55

11.3 New drivers — Seeded Provisional

A new driver is seeded from the iRating on their registration form, entering at the floor score of their seed class:

SEED CLASS	IRATING
Platinum	2500+
Gold	1800–2499
Silver	1200–1799
Bronze	1199 and under

For a driver's first 3 starts they are Provisional: the class shown is the better of their seed class or the class their real running score earns. At 3 starts the seed ends and the real score alone decides the class. A single race at 18x or more, or a 30x disqualification, voids the seed immediately. A driver at 750 and under, or with no iRating on file, starts as Bronze (Provisional) with no seed floor. Platinum can be seeded like any other class; it does not have to be earned first.

11.4 Counting rules

- Ratings take effect from GT4 Madness Season 5. Results from earlier seasons do not count toward a driver's Rating Score.
- A start is a race night the driver appears in the results. For GR86 heat nights, one night = one start; incidents are the night's total, and performance is the average of the two heats.
- A disqualification at 30x still counts as a start, with all 30x counted.
- A Grand Endurance round is one start for each driver who turned laps for their team. Performance is the team's finishing percentile; the team car's incident total is split across the drivers who drove and the race's hours.
- Stewarding penalties do not affect the rating score.

11.5 What ratings do

At launch, ratings are badge-only: they appear next to a driver's name on the standings and in the roster, with ▲▼ markers when a class changes after a round. They gate nothing. Functional uses may be switched on later once the classes have settled.
